June 29, 2011, Auburn Hills, Mich. - With its stylistic distinction, technological innovation and extensive list of safety features — combined with a “Top Safety Pick” from the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety (IIHS) — the all-new 2011 Chrysler 300 sedan was named NADAguides’ “Car of the Month” for July, continuing the momentum for the Chrysler brand.

“The Chrysler 300 has made the leap from stylish to luxurious with chrome accents, LED lights, ambient lighting and much more,” said Troy Snyder —Director of Product Development, NADAguides. “The 300 goes above and beyond your typical feature set, with heated and cooled cup holders, power rear sun shade, Blind-spot monitoring, Uconnect Touch system and rear heated seats as well as steering wheel, to name a few. The NADAguides analysts know that this isn’t the car for just anyone, but more specifically for those looking for a proven sedan with luxury features and sharp design elements; the 2011 Chrysler 300 is the perfect combination.”

NADAguides (National Automobile Dealers Association) “Car of the Month” award provides consumers with practical information on new cars, trucks and SUVs chosen by the analysts at NADAguides for exceptional performance, efficiency, features, options and appeal.

“It’s definitely an honor to have the all-new 2011 Chrysler 300 recognized by NADAguides as ‘Car of the Month’ - July,” said Olivier Francois, President and CEO — Chrysler Brand and Lead Executive for Marketing, Chrysler Group LLC. “Our brand new flagship sedan delivers head-turning style combined with the Chrysler 300 teams’ pride and determination to give our customers the quality and technological excellence of the world’s best sedans at an incredible value – and this is what our Imported from Detroit spirit is all about.”

Criteria used to determine NADAguides Car of the Month includes: quality of engineering, fuel efficiency, safety equipment and ratings, pricing and overall value, sales trends, consumer market interest on NADAguides.com, and test drives performed by NADAguides market analysts. Car of the Month vehicles are eligible for the NADAguides Car of the Year award.

The analysts at NADAguides first took notice of the Chrysler 300 when it moved into the top 20 most researched vehicles on NADAguides.com during the first-quarter of 2011. From December 2010 to January 2011 consumer interest in the 2011 Chrysler 300 increased by more than 200 percent.
