FCA US Announces Leadership Change

October 1, 2015, Auburn Hills, Mich. - FCA US today named Ryan Talbott Chief Information Officer for its NAFTA region. In addition, Talbott will be responsible for Information and Communication Technology (ICT) for the Company's APAC region, where he oversees the regional team. The appointment is effective immediately.

Talbott replaces Scott Sandschafer who has decided to leave the company to pursue other interests.

"We wish to thank Scott for his leadership and many contributions to the organization and welcome Ryan to his new role," said Sergio Marchionne, Chief Executive Officer, Fiat Chrysler Automobiles N.V.

Talbott joined FCA US in 2010 and has held a series of positions in the Company's ICT department. Previously, he was with Accenture where he focused on technology implementation for various clients.

Talbott holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
