FCA US Honors Outstanding Supplier Partners at Sixth Annual Awards Ceremony

- Company presented 23 awards to its North American suppliers for extraordinary performance in 2015
- Theme of this year's Qualitas was Quality Makers: Aligning for Excellence

July 15, 2016, Auburn Hills, Mich. - FCA US LLC presented 23 awards to the Company's North American strategic supplier partners at the sixth annual Qualitas awards ceremony held at Sound Board at MotorCity Casino Hotel in Detroit. The awards recognize suppliers that have shown extraordinary commitment to innovation, quality, continuous improvement and the Company's Foundational Principles.

Global Purchasing Officer for FCA NV and Head of Purchasing and Supplier Quality for FCA – North America Scott Thiele led the program addressing an audience of more than 1,000, outlining how the group is capitalizing on the Company's global footprint to support the five-year business plan.

"Today, we honored those companies that were dedicated to helping us achieve success through teamwork, innovation and an intense focus on quality," said Thiele. "As FCA continues to grow globally, we want to work with our top supplier partners to bring the highest quality vehicles to drivers across the world."

Qualitas recognizes both production and non-production suppliers that not only demonstrate operational excellence, but that also have strong corporate values in areas such as diversity, innovation and sustainability. The 2015 FCA US Qualitas recipients are:
