- Austin joins Denver, Portland and Washington, D.C., offering residents vehicle access options with the Free2Move Mobility Hub

December 8, 2021, Austin - Free2Move, driven to develop flexible mobility solutions that meet the evolving market demand, is excited to add Austin, Texas, to its list of Mobility Hubs. Austinites can already see the Free2Move fleet of 100 Jeep® Renegade vehicles parked on the city streets. As of today, Austin residents are able to book a Jeep Renegade through the Free2Move App for a rental by the minute, by the day or by the month.

Free2Move has prioritized Austin as a Mobility Hub thanks to the city's commitment to bring additional mobility services to its community. The Free2Move fleet of Jeep Renegades is perfect for local residents to use as part of their daily urban transportation system and for visitors of Austin to use throughout the duration of their stay. Free2Move can be part of a park-and-ride system and is equally as convenient for weekend getaways to San Antonio, Houston and Dallas. With all the concerts and events being held in Austin, the need for transportation is endless.

The Free2Move Austin Mobility Hub will focus on:
