November 30, 2009, Auburn Hills, Mich. -

Chrysler Group today reported sales increases on several models, both year-over-year and month-over-month. The Chrysler Sebring Sedan, Dodge Avenger, Dodge Journey and Dodge Grand Caravan all reported year-over-year sales increases. The Chrysler PT Cruiser, Chrysler Sebring Convertible, Jeep® Commander, Jeep Liberty, Jeep Compass, Jeep Patriot, Dodge Viper, Dodge Dakota and Ram Cab Chassis all reported month-over-month sales increases.

"The company showed some encouraging signs this month, providing a good foundation going forward and reinforcing our promising future which everyone in the company is excited about," said Fred Diaz, President and Chief Executive Officer—Ram Brand and Lead Executive for the Sales Organization, Chrysler Group LLC. "Consumer confidence is building now that we've released our five-year business plan, and we're showcasing our brands, great products and cool features in new advertising."

Chrysler Group reported total U.S. sales for November of 63,560 units, increasing its market share to 8.4 percent. Sales declined 25 percent versus November 2008. The company finished the month with 176,282 units in inventory, representing a 64-day supply. Inventory is down 56 percent compared with November 2008. Overall industry figures for November are projected to come in at an estimated 11.0 million SAAR.
