February 29, 2012, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Chrysler Group LLC today reported U.S. sales of 133,521 units, a 40 percent increase compared with sales in February 2011 (95,102 units), and the group's best February sales since 2008.

Chrysler Group outpaced the industry in February with its 23rd-consecutive month of year-over-year sales gains. The company has beaten the industry average sales increase in each of the last 12 months. It was Chrysler Group's ninth-consecutive month of sales gains of at least 20 percent.

In February, every Chrysler Group model in production for more than 12 months posted a year-over-year sales gain. The Chrysler brand led the way with a solid 114 percent increase. The FIAT brand finished its first year of sales with its best month ever. Sales of the Fiat 500 were up 69 percent in February compared with the previous month.

"Our product portfolio now contains some of the most fuel-efficient vehicles in our company's history driving our sales up 40 percent in February," said Reid Bigland, President and CEO – Dodge Brand and Head of U.S. Sales. "A few years ago higher fuel prices were a major threat to our total vehicle sales whereas today those higher prices have become far less of an issue. We now have 13 vehicles with an EPA-rated highway fuel economy of 25 miles per gallon or higher, and six of those vehicles get 31 mpg or higher."

Another strong showing by its sedans fueled Chrysler Group's 40 percent increase in February. The Chrysler 300 flagship sedan and Chrysler 200 mid-size sedan each posted triple-digit sales gains, while the Dodge Charger and Avenger sports sedans each logged healthy year-over-year increases. Sales of the Chrysler 300 were up 480 percent in February, the full-size sedan's fourth-consecutive month with triple-digit gains.

Both the Jeep® and Dodge brands posted year-over-year sales increases in February. All five Jeep brand models posted double-digit percentage sales gains, led by the Jeep Grand Cherokee's 47 percent increase. The three-row Dodge Durango SUV, the Dodge Journey full-size crossover and the Dodge Grand Caravan minivan each posted year-over-year sales gains in the double digits.

Ram pickup truck sales also were up 21 percent in February, the truck's 22nd-consecutive month of year-over-year sales gains.

Chrysler Group finished the month with a 66-days supply of inventory (354,928 units). U.S. industry sales figures for February are projected at an estimated 14.9 million units Seasonally Adjusted Annual Rate (SAAR).

February 2012 U.S. Sales Highlights by Brand

Chrysler Brand

The Chrysler brand's solid 114 percent sales increase in February represented the largest percentage increase of any Chrysler Group brand, the fifth-consecutive month that the brand has posted the largest sale gain within the group. February was the Chrysler brand's eighth-consecutive month of year-over-year sales gains and its best sales month since May 2008.

Sales of both Chrysler sedans were up in February, as were Chrysler Town & Country minivan sales. The minivan had its best February in four years. The full-size Chrysler 300 sedan led the brand with a 480 percent increase in February compared with sales in the same month a year ago. The 300, which just earned a five-star safety rating from NHTSA, had its best sales performance since March 2008. The five-star rating is the highest rating for safety by the U.S. government and measures vehicle safety performance in three categories, including front and side crashes as well as for rollover. The 300 also was just named one of the "10 Best Family Cars" of 2012 by Kelley Blue Book's kbb.com.

Jeep® Brand

Jeep brand sales increased 30 percent in February compared with the same month in 2011, the brand's best February since 2007. February marked the brand's 22nd-consecutive month of year-over-year sales gains.

All five Jeep brand models recorded double-digit sales gains in February, led by the Jeep Grand Cherokee's 47 percent increase. It was the Grand Cherokee's best February sales in six years. The Grand Cherokee and Dodge Durango shared MotorWeek's "Drivers' Choice Award" for Best Large Utility in February while the Jeep Wrangler earned Kelley Blue Book's "Total Cost of Ownership Award" for Mid-size Sport Utility. The Wrangler registered its 22nd-consecutive month of year-over-year sales gains in February.

Dodge Brand

Dodge brand sales increased 27 percent in February, the brand's best sales performance in February since 2008 and its ninth-consecutive month of year-over-year sales growth.

All six Dodge brand models in production posted sales gains, led by the Dodge Charger and Avenger sports sedans. The Charger just earned a five-star safety rating from NHTSA. The Dodge Challenger muscle car, with its 14 percent increase, set a new February sales record.

The full-size Dodge Journey crossover, with its 28 percent sales increase, also set a new February sales record. February was the Journey's best sales month since December 2009. Dodge Grand Caravan sales were up 20 percent, the minivan's best February sales in five years.
