Contact: Shawn Morgan

Laranjo, Joao
Chief Financial Officer, FCA US LLC
Joao Laranjo is the Chief Financial Officer for FCA US LLC. He was named to the position in March 2017. He is responsible for all financial matters relating to the company's U.S., Canada and Mexico operations.

Prior to his current position, Laranjo worked as the Latin America (LATAM) CFO since November 2015. Based in Brazil, he was responsible for overseeing, planning and managing financial operations and controlling for the Company. He also served as LATAM Deputy CFO and as the LATAM Chief Accounting Officer. Before that, Laranjo held various financial positions primarily relating to FCA's LATAM operations.

Laranjo came to the Company in April 2009 from the Brazil division of General Electric Healthcare where he worked as controller and oversaw controllership activities across three countries.

Laranjo's professional experience is as follows:

- 2017 - current, Chief Financial Officer, NAFTA, FCA US LLC
- 2015, Chief Financial Officer, FCA LATAM
- 2014, Deputy Chief Financial Officer, FCA LATAM
- 2013, Chief Accounting Officer and FP&A, FCA LATAM
- 2012, Chief Financial Officer, FCA Venezuela
- 2011, Chief Financial Officer - Fiat Powertrain Mercosul
- 2009, Chief Accounting Officer – Fiat LATAM
- 2008, Controller for Brazil and LA South Region, General Electric - Healthcare
- 2005, Global Internal Auditor, General Electric
- 2001, Finance Analyst – Trainee, General Electric

Laranjo graduated from Pontifical Catholic University of Minas Gerais in Brazil with bachelor's degrees in accounting and business administration along with a master's degree in finance.

01212021

-###-

Additional information and news from Stellantis are available at: https://media.stellantisnorthamerica.com