FCA Foundation and Detroit Symphony Orchestra Honor U.S. Service Members, Veterans and their Families

FCA Foundation grant enables DSO to expand ticket discounts to more concerts and perform free concerts at John D. Dingell V.A. Medical Center

October 12, 2018, Detroit - The Detroit Symphony Orchestra (DSO) and the FCA Foundation, the charitable arm of North American automaker FCA US LLC, have announced an expansion of their partnership that aims to honor U.S. service members, veterans, and their families. The DSO and the FCA Foundation first began a partnership in 2017, and the 2018-2019 Season of the DSO's Classical and PNC Pops Series will see the collaboration grow to reach more people, including those who have served their country.

U.S. service members, veterans, and their families can access discounted tickets to 19 DSO concerts throughout the season – triple the number of concerts offered during the prior season. Eligible concerts begin this weekend with Dancing in the Street: A Symphonic Tribute to Motown and include: all 12 Friday morning Coffee Concert performances on the Classical Series and six Friday evening performances on the PNC Pops Series, in addition to one Friday evening Classical Series concert during February's American Panorama Winter Music Festival. See below for a complete list of eligible concerts.

The FCA Foundation's support will also enable DSO musicians to visit Midtown Detroit's John D. Dingell V.A. Medical Center to perform free concerts for patients, visitors, and staff.

"The FCA Foundation is pleased to collaborate with the DSO in an effort to recognize the contributions of our service members, veterans and their families," said Shane Karr, Head of External Affairs, FCA – North America and President, FCA Foundation. "Without a doubt, it's their sacrifices that make the freedoms we all enjoy possible, and for this we are forever grateful."

About the FCA Foundation

The FCA Foundation is the charitable arm of North American automaker FCA US LLC, a member of the Fiat Chrysler Automobiles N.V. (FCA) family of companies. The FCA Foundation invests in U.S. charitable organizations and initiatives that help empower people, build strong, resilient communities and generate meaningful and measurable societal impacts. In support of these objectives, the FCA Foundation focuses on the following foundational pillars: youth development, education, support for military, veterans and their families, and community service.

About the DSO

Hailed by the New York Times as “cutting edge,” the internationally acclaimed Detroit Symphony Orchestra is known for trailblazing performances, visionary maestros, collaborations with the world’s foremost musical artists, and an ardent commitment to Detroit. As a community-supported orchestra, generous giving by individuals and institutions at all levels drives the continued success and growth of the institution. Esteemed conductor Leonard Slatkin, called “America’s Music Director” by the Los Angeles Times, became the DSO’s 12th Music Director, endowed by the Kresge Foundation, in 2008. The 2017-2018 Season marked Slatkin’s tenth and final year in the role, and in 2018-2019 he returns as Music Director Laureate. Acclaimed conductor, arranger, and trumpeter Jeff Tyzik serves as Principal Pops Conductor, while celebrated trumpeter and composer Terence Blanchard holds the Fred A. and Barbara M. Erb Jazz Creative Director Chair. With growing attendance and unwavering philanthropic support from the Detroit community, the DSO’s performance schedule includes Classical, Pops, Jazz, Young People’s, and Neighborhood concerts, and collaborations with high profile artists from Steven Spielberg to Ben Folds and Lang Lang. In July 2017, the DSO embarked on its first international tour in 16 years, making its debut in China and first visit to Japan in 19 years. A commitment to broadcast innovation began in 1922, when the DSO became the first orchestra in the world to present a radio broadcast, and continues today with the free Live from Orchestra Hall webcast series, which also reaches tens of thousands of children with the Classroom Edition expansion. Making its home at historic Orchestra Hall within the Max M. and Marjorie S. Fisher Music Center, one of America's most acoustically perfect concert halls, the DSO actively pursues a mission to embrace and inspire individuals, families, and communities through unsurpassed musical experiences.
