The recognition was awarded under the Honoring Investments in Recruiting and Employing American Military Veterans Act (HIRE) signed into law by President Trump in 2017.

The HIRE Vets Medallion Program is the only veteran-hiring award issued by the U.S. government. FCA US was the only automaker to achieve HIRE medallion certification in 2018.

"FCA US has a long and deep connection to the women and men who've fought and continue to fight for our nation's freedom," said Barb Pilarski, Head of Human Resources, FCA US LLC. "We are proud that our connection to the nation's heroes is as strong as ever and continues today in very meaningful ways."

"By meeting the criteria required for a Gold Medallion Program Demonstration Award, FCA US demonstrated a model of patriotism worthy of praise, as well as a recognition of the value veterans bring to the workplace," Matthew Miller, Deputy Assistant Secretary, HIRE Vets Medallion Program, said.

The Company first signed the ESGR pledge in 2008 and reaffirmed its pledge in 2015.

Currently, 19 members of the FCA US team are on active leave while 410 employees are Active and Inactive reservists. More than 5,000 current employees are U.S. military veterans.
