June 11, 2019, Auburn Hills, Mich. - The FIAT brand announced today the new 2019 Fiat 500X Urbana Edition, a custom-appearance package that adds unique wheels, LED lighting, roof rails and sleek black-themed accents inside and out.

Designed and manufactured in Italy, the new 2019 Fiat 500X features an all-new, standard-equipped 1.3-liter turbocharged engine with the latest iteration of the FCA exclusive MultiAir (called MultiAir III) valve-actuation technology, engine stop-start (ESS) technology and best-in-class torque. Also standard are a nine-speed automatic transmission and an all-wheel-drive system with a disconnecting rear axle that contributes to improved fuel efficiency.

In addition to new front and rear fascia designs, the new FIAT crossover offers full LED headlamps, fog lamps and nearly 70 safety and security features that now include adaptive cruise control and Front Park Assist.

Based on the top-selling Fiat 500X Trekking model, 500X Urbana Edition exterior features include Miron black-painted mirror caps, door handles, taillamp surrounds, liftgate bezel, fascias and sill moldings with a copper-accented 500X logo. Upgraded 18-inch matte black and Miron wheels are also accented with a copper center cap. In addition, black side roof rails, full LED headlamps plus fog lamps, as well as dark headlamp surrounds, add to the 500X Urbana Edition's head-turning appearance.

Inside, the 500X Urbana Edition features unique seats with black Castiglio chevron-patterned fabric and copper-embroidered 500 logos, a black-textured instrument panel with a copper 500 logo, a black-painted center console, and Miron-painted radio and vent bezels.

The Urbana Edition package is available for $895 on the well-equipped 500X Trekking model, which starts at $25,995 U.S. MSRP, excluding destination. Other options and packages may be added to the 500X Urbana Edition, including:

- Advanced Driver Assistance Group: $1,395, featuring auto high-beam headlamps, Blind-spot Monitoring and Rear Cross Path detection systems, Full-speed Forward Collision Warning-Plus, LaneSense Lane Departure Warning-Plus, rain-sensing windshield wipers and adaptive cruise control
- Dual-pane panoramic sunroof and Beats premium audio system: $995
- Cold Weather Group: $295, featuring heated front seats and windshield wiper deicer
- Comfort Group: $795, includes automatic temperature control air conditioning with dual-zone controls, eight-way power adjustable driver seat, overhead ambient lighting, four-way power lumbar driver seat adjust and automatic dimming rearview mirror
- GPS Navigation: $695

The Fiat 500X Urbana Edition is available now in FIAT studios and select Chrysler, Jeep®, Dodge and Ram stores. Visit FIATusa.com to find a FIAT dealer near you.
