Tentative Agreement reached between Stellantis and Unifor

October 30, 2023, Windsor, Ontario - The following statement is attributed to Mark Stewart, Stellantis North America COO:

I am very proud of the negotiating teams and thankful for their commitment and focused effort in reaching a tentative agreement with Unifor. Once ratified, this agreement will reward our 8,000 represented employees and protect the long-term health of our Canadian operations. Out of respect for the bargaining process, we will refrain from commenting until the ratification process is complete.
